

Lago di Garda – Italy’s largest lake

Lake Garda is a beautiful destination in Italy. It offers both lakeside relaxation and numerous exciting activities. Thank’s to a well-developed public transport network, you can also visit several famous Italian cities like Verona, Milan, Venice and Bologna. Lake Garda has a lot to offer to the traveller seeking to experience the beauty, history and good food of Italy.

Powerful mountains to the north, vineyards and olive, citrus, and palm trees, the blue waters of the lake glint under the hot Italian sun together with picturesque towns, each one with its own character and appeal.

It is no wonder that Lake Garda attracts millions of visitors each year!

Question: Why does Lake Garda attract millions of visitors each year?